

Michael Drabik Memorial Library of the Polish Genealogical Society of New York State

INTRODUCTION

In 1993, the Polish Genealogical Society of New York State (PGSNYS) began a project to make its collection of books, serials, pamphlets, and other materials useful for Polish genealogical research available to the general public. The collection materials came to PGSNYS from a myriad of sources and were donated or purchased for a variety of reasons. A substantial portion of the collection was owned by PGSNYS founder Michael Drabik, and was donated to PGSNYS by his family after his death in 2001. In 2006, the Buffalo and Erie County Central Library agreed to house the collection in the Grosvenor Room. Subsequently, the collection was inspected, organized, and placed in a database and, in early 2008, the materials were labeled and shelved in the Grosvenor Room as the PGSNYS Michael Drabik Memorial Library Collection. A ceremony to dedicate the collection in Michael Drabik's memory was held August 9, 2008 in the Grosvenor Room.

In order to facilitate public use of the materials, in mid-2008, PGSNYS began a project to describe the collection using Finding Aids that serve as a comprehensive listing of every title available and illustrate the richness the collection.

Contained herein is Finding Aid I, an alphabetical listing of the collection by title. Finding Aid II is currently in development and will arrange the collection by subjectn(with titles listed alphabetically within each subject). All the materials will eventually be available through a searchable online database on the PGSNYS website (www.pgsnys.org). These aids are designed to facilitate public access to the collection materials. For each item listed in these aids, the following information is included (as available): title, subtitle, author, publication information, year, call number, description, language, subjects, and document type. Assistance with the collection is also available from the Grosvenor Room reference librarians.
